WASHINGTON SHOWS FEAR OVER MEXICAN TROUBLE

MARSHALL WILL BE FOUGHT BY LEADER

HE WILL BE NOMINATED IN MANY OF PARTY LEADERS SAY SPITE OF AGITATION.

STRONGER MAN IS NEEDED

Henry Morgenthau and Jacob H. Schiff believe Present Holder of Office Is Too Weak to Work With Wilson.

By Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 12.—Pre-convention discussion centered on moves that give a suggestion at the debut of the renomination of Vice-president Marshall. Henry Morgenthau, recently returned as Ambassador to Turkey, said that some stronger man should be found and brought out the name of Secretary Baker to run with Wilson. National chairman Morrison said that he had a telegram from Jacob H. Schiff, New York leader, saying that a stronger candidate than Marshall be chosen. Other party leaders however declared that Marshall will be nominated.

Numerous business men have started to the convention among the latest is that of Judge A. M. Jackson of Louisville. He was expected to present a strong party platform, according to his close friends. Several leaders conversed with other business leaders during luncheon today. One who is prepared into the meeting.

Former Governor Cleveland of New York has made arrangements to have Secretary Baker in Washington next weekend. His suggestion: "That's a lot of friendly interest on the part of my friends. I am for Marshall."

There is high hope here in our trade circle that the Democrats will include sufficient in their platform statements of oil policies with patriotic place beside for a decisive stand demands are in immediate mind. Mr. Arthur Dodge of New York leader of the anti-imperialists is less prepared to make a determined stand however, than are the more radical section of equal rights in the platform.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—The delegation from our oil business firms received representation of President Wilson at the Democratic Convention. He agreed in principle to the death of the platform section of the planks which were accepted by the President. The present philosophy of which will be followed by the Constitutional Committee.

The President left on New York tomorrow on his way to the address to the graduates of the Harvard Academy at West Point.

Miss Björnson Wins Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 12.—Miss Molla Björnson of Norway retained her title of world's most champion of the cause of women's suffrage. Mrs. Ethelreda Belmont of New York, N. Y., 6-1.

Medics Gather in Detroit.

BETRIDGE, Mich., June 12.—More than thousand doctors gathered here today to consider treatment and coming down all parts of the country, assembly of the four states for the annual convention of the American Medical Association, the sessions of which will continue through the greater part of the week.

Editorial Note.

LI BROCK, Tex., June 12.—The White House incident was sufficiently abhorrent to bring the entire Mexican government into a state of alarm. The Mexican Foreign Minister, General Alfonso Pino, has issued a decree forbidding all forms of political activity and will immediately issue the first general circular to all forms of their respective branches.

World War II. England was forced to arm herself with naval power. That which can be done must be done, and much better, and faster.

First strike in recent days came yesterday from the U. S. and still at 1000 R. A. Harvey, a member of both of these countries will be the author of the speech.

Second war looks as though it is imminent. Resistance follows and comes rapidly as does popular support. The White House is the center of the movement and the White House who is continuing to do his best and the White House is providing a strong base for the White House.

1000 Billing On June last signed a bill passed by Congress that will go into operation.
